

Please do not pass a rule increasing Morse requirements. We should encourage more operators and not make them learn a technology that is only for a small group of intertested individuals. We should recognize that morse code will go the way of the sextant. Let's move into this century by dropping the requirement for all but the Extra class and welcome more numbers to the ranks of HAM operator.